LEAD Fellows

The Vice Chancellor for Equity, Diversity and Inclusion seeks nominations from areas across the University for LEAD Fellows.

LEAD Fellows advance UC San Diego’s vision to be a student-centered, research-focused, service-oriented public university and meet strategic goal 2 - Cultivating a diverse and inclusive university community that encourages respectful open dialogue, and challenges itself to take bold actions that will ensure learning is accessible and affordable for all.

LEAD Fellows
- Provide leadership to advance education and build capacity for a more inclusive university
- Ensure diversity and excellence throughout all spheres of influence
- Facilitate dialogue in multiple settings around equity and multicultural competence

LEAD Fellows program elements include:
- Immersion into theoretical concepts relating to equity, diversity and inclusion
- Enhanced multicultural competence of historical, current and emerging diverse communities
- Increased skill in individual communication, small group dynamics and large group facilitation
- Advanced program development opportunities for University change strategies

LEAD Fellows will come from the ranks of key leaders from all areas of the University. Please nominate MSP-A level employees, or above.

Nominations should be sent to the Vice Chancellor for Equity, Diversity and Inclusion at vcedi@ucsd.edu no later than November 16.
