"IT'S TIME FOR A CHANGE"

SCHOLAR-ATHLETES PRODUCE VIDEO DEMANDING CHANGE

LA JOLLA, Calif. – Several UC San Diego scholar-athletes produced a video for social media demanding change and supporting the Black Lives Matter movement. The video was directed by Marissa Ray of the women's soccer team, and resulted from a town hall discussion with UC
It's Time For A Change - University of California, San Diego

06.16.20
Enter to Win a Gift Certificate to the UC San Diego Bookstore!

06.15.20
Statement From Big West Conference Board of Directors

06.15.20
Scholar-Athletes Take Part in UC San Diego Virtual Commencement

06.05.20
Athletics Department Holds Town Hall to Discuss Racism

06.05.20
Triton Tide Announces Leadership for 2020-21
Copyright 2020, University of California, San Diego. All Rights Reserved.

Terms of Service
Privacy Policy
video platform powered by CBS Sports Digital
UC San Diego Athletics will host a similar town hall meeting for its coaching and administrative staffs next week.

About UC San Diego Athletics

After two decades as one of the most successful programs in NCAA Division II, the UC San Diego intercollegiate athletics program begins a new era in 2020 as a member of the Big West Conference in NCAA Division I. The 23-sport Tritons earned 30 team and nearly 150 individual national championships during its time in Divisions III and II and helped guide more than 1,300 scholar-athletes to All-America honors. A total of 82 Tritons have earned Academic All-America honors, while 37 have earned prestigious NCAA Post Graduate Scholarships. UC San Diego scholar-athletes exemplify the academic ideals of one of the world’s preeminent institutions, graduating at an average rate of 91 percent, one of the highest rates among institutions at all